

DECOQUEST Series

Where style is at a premium, the ideal choice is DecoQuest. The magnetic porcelain dry erase surface is surrounded by Ghent's distinctive Deco design. DecoQuest features an aluminum frame that combines the contrasting looks of black powder coating and cherry wood-grain laminate along with multi-faceted corners to make a bold statement.

Available in four sizes, the board can be mounted either landscape or portrait thanks to a concealed hanging system. DecoQuest Markerboards offer years of solid performance and will look uncommonly good in whatever type of decorative environment it calls home!

- Aluminum frame is finished in contrasting black powder coating and cherry laminate
- Concealed hanging system for secure wall mounting
- Porcelain marker surface accepts magnets and will not ghost or stain
- Attachable accessory tray for landscape or portrait hanging
- Comes complete with a black dry erase marker and an eraser
- Backed by a Ghent 50-year guarantee
